LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE. 'Honor to Whom Honor is Duc." EDITORS APPEAL-Your editorial in yes erday's issue in regard to the Hope night school was prompted by a most kind and generous spirit, but it accords to me an honor that I do not deserve, and I hasten to correct the impression that has been made. The enterprise had its origin with a citizen of Memphis, who has borne all the expense of fitting up the building, furnishing books, etc., which are by no means light. This is only one
